EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

After the Brokers—First Failure in the Produce Exchange.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The scene in Wall street is much less excited to-day. The crowd of brokers who have hitherto blocked up Broad street in front of the Stock Exchange, was much less in the afternoon, owing to the energetic action of the Captain of the second precinct, who directed his men to disperse all groups which threatened to interfere with sidewalk traffic. The brokers by this means were driven into the road, but they fared no better here. The police ordered trucks to be driven through the crowds and so compelled the brokers to scatter in all directions.

Since the appointment of a Commissioner to effect clearances, a large number of private settlements have been made by bankers, who prefer settling between themselves to having their business brought before the committee.

The Governing Committee will meet at half past 10 to-morrow.

The first failure at the Produce Exchange is reported. It is a very respectable house, though not one of the largest, whose credit has hitherto been first class, and it has been forced to succumb in consequence of trouble in its export trade.

Several parties are short of gold, and refuse to pay one half of one per cent. for borrowing, hence there is a hitch in the clearance of gold at the Gold Exchange Bank.

The Stock Exchange continues closed. The Governing Committee this morning decided that twenty-four hours' notice should be given before opening it. It is said that the bulk of contracts made on Friday and Saturday last will be settled before the Exchange is opened. The twenty-four hours' notice insures the closing of the Exchange for the rest of the week. This will give a longer opportunity for further private settlements of outstanding contracts, a long step having been gained in that direction already.

Harvey Fisk, of Fisk & Hatch, states that the house has its settlements nearly completed, and that the next news from them will be a resumption of payments. Their depositors are willing to assist in setting the wheels again in motion, and their securities are ready for realization as soon as there is a chance to use them.

There was extraordinary excitement in the gold market to-day, which at one time promised disastrous results. The market was very excited, and the price moved from 14 to 14½ [illegible] 14½ at opening.

EVENING.—The general feeling in financial circles has decidedly improved. The day's closed [illegible] with some confidence in the belief that the bottom of the panic has been reached in this city, and there is a fair prospect that when the Stock Exchange is opened there will be little to arrange in the way of settlements [illegible] brokers, so that [illegible] will be no new failures.

Resumption of Henry Clews & Co. and Howes & Macey.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The resumption arrangement of Henry Clews & Co. has received general endorsement, and a number of their [illegible] succeeded in transferring [illegible] to new [illegible] accounts on their books. Numerous new accounts have also been opened.

[illegible] Associations.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—A meeting of the Clearing House Association was held last night and did not adjourn until half past one o'clock this morning. It was attended by all members, including the officers of banks that suspended yesterday. A proposition to issue loan certificates for Clearing House purposes, received a majority of votes, but was not adopted on account of strong opposition.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—The Clearing House Association resolved that during the existing dearth of currency, banks will not in future pay out any more currency, except what is actually needed for payment of wages. It was also resolved that banks will aid each other under necessary circumstances, and that all will sustain mercantile, manufacturing and business interests.

The discussion was renewed, it being declared necessary to take some united action.

A committee was appointed at a late hour to consider and report for adoption a plan for settlement at the Clearing House.

It was then voted to adjourn till 10 o'clock this morning.

At a subsequent meeting of the committee they resolved that they will report for adoption a plan similar to the New York system, and that stocks be paid only through the Clearing House.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—A committee of the Stock Board held a conference this afternoon with bank Presidents, who stated that a wrong impression prevailed among brokers, and that it was not the intention of banks to force any securities upon the market. The Sentinel of last Saturday says: "The Jackson County Agricultural Fair opened on Wednesday last. The weather was fine and the grounds and race track in fine order. The attendance has not been as large as might have been expected, but the interest manifested was no less on that account. The exhibition of farm and garden products has been quite creditable, as also of live stock, and the ladies have spared no exertions to make the Fair attractive in their various specimens of housewifery and horticultural excellencies."

Junction City Lodge No. 58, F. & A. M., was installed on Wednesday evening, the 24th, by M. W. T. McF. Patton, Grand Master. Delegations from Eugene, Thurston and Monroe Lodges were in attendance. The ceremonies were public, and after installation of officers Rev. W. R. Stewart, Grand Orator, delivered an address. Mr. Gilmore furnished the banquet, at which full one hundred ladies and gentlemen were seated. The following officers were installed: James W. Brasfield, W. M.; V. Ksatz, S. W.; T. A. Millican, J. W.; [illegible] Sternberg, Treasurer; I. Senders, Secretary.

Mr. W. C. Myer, of Jacksonville, is on his way to the State Fair grounds, at Salem, with the following fine horses: White Prince and Napoleon, two celebrated stallions well known throughout the State, and, therefore, not necessary to be described here. Their age and weight is as follows: Reliance, two-year old, 1,465 pounds; Capt. Jack, one-year old, 1,160; Bird, one-year old, 1,085; Fredrick William, one-year old, 1,070; Marshal Ney, five months old, 675. Doll, two and a half years old, 1,275; Maggie, 1,800 pounds; Louise, two-year old, 1,560; Tempest, yearling, 1,245, and Hortense, yearling, 1,070. Eight of these animals were foaled in Oregon; the remainder either in Ohio or France.

The Eugene Guard of last Saturday says: "Our farmers have completely blockaded the railroad with wheat, and yet it comes pouring in. Every day long trains of wagons are seen waiting their turn to unload at the various warehouses. It has been impossible to obtain cars during the past week, and no grain has been shipped. The result is that the depot building and its platforms are filled until they will scarcely hold another sack; the Farmers' warehouse is nearly full; the Salem Mills house is about full; the one on the river is entirely filled; Mr. Chichester's, above town, will be filled in a few days, and the Mill Co.'s house, which has a capacity of 40,000 bushels, is rapidly filling up."

The Albany Democrat tells this: "We have just heard of an act of a heroic woman of Linn which ought to be handed down to posterity as an example worthy of all imitation. Harvest came on, her husband was too [illegible] to attend to business, so she turned out and took charge of the harvesting business, superintending the cutting and thrashing, frequently making an active hand herself. In this manner over 2,000 bushels of grain [illegible] harvested, garnered and sold [illegible] by her direction and under her personal supervision. She took the money home last Saturday and turned it over to her husband, who was thus enabled to come to the Fair this week and attend all the shows and other amusements, leaving his wife at home to take care of the children and the barn! Heroic wife! Devoted husband!"

The Corvallis Gazette of last Saturday says: "About 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. M. Lillard brought the sad intelligence to town that Mr. Zeb. Henkle, living near Philomath, father of Geo. W. Henkle, merchant of this place, had been instantly killed by the accidental discharge of his shot gun. The circumstances, as near as we could learn them, were as follows: Mr. H. yesterday morning about 7 o'clock, desired, it is supposed, to kill a gopher, and went to the closet to get his gun for that purpose; from the position in which he was found, it is supposed that he was in the act of blowing down the gun, to ascertain whether it was loaded or not, when the cap was, by some unaccountable means, exploded, the entire charge entering his mouth, causing instant death. Mr. H. was one of our most respected, quiet citizens, in easy circumstances, and leaves a wife and several children, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss."

On Friday, Sept. 19th, the Representatives of the Granges in the counties of Douglas, Lane, Benton, Polk, Clackamas, Marion and Linn, met in Albany for the purpose of organizing a Central Grand Association. N. W. Garretson, Deputy of the National Grange, was present and directed the proceedings of the [illegible]. Fifty-nine delegates were in attendance, embracing twenty-nine Granges. Dr. W. R. Alexander, of Linn, was elected temporary President, and a Constitution and By-Laws were adopted, after which the Association adjourned to meet in the same place on the second Tuesday in October, when a permanent organization will be effected. The Constitution provides that the meetings of the Association shall be held at Albany on the second [illegible] of each month. The object of this Association, as we are informed, is to [illegible] and [illegible] into effect active measures for the protection of its members [illegible] transportation [illegible] and to advance the interests of [illegible].

Williams, assisted by Past Principal Z., Eli Harrison, sen., viz: M. E. C., John Boyd, 1st Principal Z.; M. E. C., H. F. Heisterman, 2d Principal H.; M. E. C., Wm. Leigh, sen., 3d Principal J.; Comp. From the Colonist: "To Mr. Walter Moberley was reserved the distinction of seeking out a path by which the great Canadian Railway shall pass through the Rocky Mountains on its way to the Pacific. Starting out immediately after British Columbia had been formally admitted into the Dominion, in July, 1871, the party at once proceeded to Howse Pass, via Kootenay, and surveyed the line from the summit down to within a little of the Columbia river before seeking their winter quarters, Mr. Moberley himself proceeding through the Pass to the plains beyond, thus practically demonstrating by the first season's work the complete feasibility of the route. Starting out in early spring, the party pushed through to Yellowhead Pass, via Boat Encampment and through the Athabasca Pass. Commencing at the summit of Yellowhead Pass, they worked down to Fiddle river, a distance of fifty miles, or five miles beyond Myatt Rock, which is called the Eastern Gate to the Rocky Mountains. This point was reached on the 1st of January, 1873. Retired into winter quarters, turning the animals out on the Valley of the Athabasca. Resuming operations in the beginning of March, they carried the survey to within thirty-five miles of the Saskatchewan river. Returning to this side, the party are now completing the survey on the south side of the Fraser, to a point just below Tete Jaune Cache, which it is expected will be accomplished about the beginning of October. Thus the Moberley party will have, in a little over two years, accomplished the survey of the two great Canadian passes through the Rocky Mountains, an achievement of which Mr. Moberly may justly feel proud.

CONVINCED OF ERROR.

As we expected and predicted, the Bulletin has been forced to acknowledge the correctness of our statement as to the advance in railway freight tariffs between Roseburg and Portland. The explanation it offers is not unreasonable. It says that prior to the first day of September, the Railway Company carried freights between Roseburg and Eugene City for nothing. That is to say, the tariff from Roseburg to Portland was the same as that from Eugene City to Portland. It says also, that when the agreement was made, it was understood by both parties to the agreement that the tariff should be raised as the price of wheat advanced. We are willing to presume that our cotemporary has obtained this information from a source more reliable than the Freight Superintendent who deceived it in the first instance, and that it now tells the truth. But, with whom was this "agreement" made? And was it tacit or expressed? Did Mr. Holladay do this thing from magnanimity or because he knew that the farmers of Douglas county could not and would not ship their grain as prices were ruling at the time of this [illegible] "agreement," if they had to pay [illegible] the tariff from Eugene? We make this latter inquiry because the [illegible] claims for Mr. Holladay an attribute entirely foreign to the average railway owner. It has occurred to us that [illegible] time of the alleged "agreement" [illegible] of wheat could not afford to freight their grain at an advance on the Eugene tariff; that Mr. Holladay, seeing [illegible] saw that in order to secure the [illegible] of the Douglas county crop he [illegible] do one of two things: either lower [illegible] tariff all along the line so as to make [illegible] from Roseburg equal the old rate [illegible] Eugene City or carry the grain [illegible] Roseburg to Eugene City "for nothing," as the Bulletin [illegible] it. The profit [illegible] the latter over the former plan is man[illegible] by adopting the latter he got [illegible] rate from Eugene City [illegible] Roseburg, which plainly would [illegible] have been the case had he [illegible] the tariff all along the line put[illegible] [illegible] rate on Roseburg [illegible]. At the same time he was afforded [illegible] to parade on occasion [illegible] desire to market the [illegible] county farmers' crop. The car[illegible] from Roseburg to Eugene [illegible] nothing," was therefore a neces[illegible] state of the market and the [illegible] "for nothing" argument is [illegible] "for nothing." The Bulletin [illegible] at this stage of the [illegible] It is [illegible] to attempt to [illegible] of Oregon by rash [illegible] the truth. Whether Mr. Holladay's [illegible] agent be [illegible] the untruth, it should [illegible] the vendor to acknowledge its [illegible]

[illegible] Holt reviews at length the con[illegible] of the trial. With some degree of [illegible] he narrates its most promi[illegible]. His statement has elicited [illegible], and incidentally the [illegible] questions are brought [illegible]. We notice, in [illegible] New York Tribune of the 16th [illegible] communication from Mrs. G. Swisshelm, in which the dis[illegible] "Was Mrs. Surratt man[illegible] Governor Hartranft, of [illegible] that the unfortunate [illegible] was chained at any time during her imprisonment. Mrs. Swisshelm, on the [illegible] hand," avers that she was [illegible] one day during Mrs. Surratt's trial, and although she did not see the [illegible] upon the feet of the prisoner, yet [illegible] heard them. In this letter Mrs. Swisshelm relates the following interest[illegible] incidence:

"She [illegible] to avoid moving, so as not to [illegible] to the chain, for every time [illegible] she blushed painfully, blushed so I could see it through the heavy crape veil she wore over her face. I sat until she was [illegible] moved. She arose with difficulty, leaning [illegible] the arm of the officer, who seemed to be [illegible]. She did not lift her feet in moving to and through the door, but slid one at a [illegible] all the way, I think not farther than that the heel of the forward foot came on a line with the toe of the other; but all the time the links ground and clanked. She could not move one foot an inch without making them grind. Mrs. Surratt sat before, or rather on one side of her judges, chained with links of iron as heavy as those of a log chain, and while she sat thus, she was grossly insulted by spectators, men and women, or things that looked like men and women. Once she turned pale when one of these creatures said. "I hope they'll hang her! Just look at her! She looks like a devil!" I could not bear it, but spoke out and said: "She does not look like a devil! She looks like a good, kind-hearted woman, and you are a mean coward for insulting a prisoner." A man, in reply, said to me "She's a rebel." And I repeated "Coward, coward."

Mrs. Surratt looked up and our eyes met. The expression of her face will haunt me to the grave, and I thank God for the look of [illegible] it were; but as we were getting up a side show, an officer forced his way to us to see what the matter was. I told him that people were insulting the prisoner. He made them stand [illegible], moved my chair to the other side of the [illegible], and set a man at the door to keep order and prevent my holding communication with the prisoner. Mrs. Surratt's chains were a common subject of conversation in Washington at the time. I wrote an account, at the time, which was published and extensively copied and commented upon, and this morning is the first time I have ever heard any denial of the fact that Mrs. Surratt was fettered as she sat wearily through the long hours and days of that trial.

THE POSTAL TELEGRAPH.

The Forty-third Congress will, in all probability, be called to wrestle with Mr. Hubbard and Postmaster-General Creswell, as well as with an invisible but very strong influence coming from the engineers of rival telegraph schemes. We do not deem it at all unlikely that the scheme for a postal telegraph as recommended by the Postmaster-General will be adopted. It has been gaining strength and favor as the discussion of its merits has progressed, and since its first introduction the opposition in Congress has perceptibly weakened. The New York Tribune of the 17th inst., in its stock report commenting on a slight decline in Western Union stock, says: "Until lately it seemed as if this Company had what was almost equivalent to a monopoly of the telegraph business in this country. Now it is said that there are new contrivances that will do the work with tenfold rapidity, and that the Western Union Company must buy them out or suffer either the inevitable consequences of another and better organization or the selling of the new inventions to the Government, and the establishment of a system of postal telegraphy at half-price. Whether these alleged discoveries of vastly superior facilities in telegraphy are well or ill-founded, we do not undertake to say; but the inventive genius of the country is perpetually producing something new and startling, and he who can materially cheapen instantaneous communication throughout the country and the world will certainly be regarded as a public benefactor." The field of telegraphy has as yet been but imperfectly surveyed. There is ample room for improvement in existing modes and appliances, and it is by no means improbable that the improvements to which the Tribune refers may advance the science of telegraphy and cheapen its processes to a degree that may ultimately force the adoption of Mr. Creswell's recommendation in some modified form.

The lyceums of the Eastern States are to be crowded with lecturers during the coming winter. Among others, General Banks will appear. His subjects are, "Will it Endure?"—a review of the dangers that threaten our Republic—and, "Burlingame." Bret Harte's new lecture is entitled "Some Bad People." Dr. Holland discourses on "The Elements of Personal Power," and ex-Governor Chamberlain, President of Bowdoin College, tells about "The Left at Gettysburg." Mr. Charles Bradlaugh, the eminent English radical, delivers his first lecture at Steinway Hall, New York, on the night of October 3d. His subject is "The Impeachment of the House of Brunswick, in connection with French and Spanish Republicanism." Mr. Bradlaugh tells a Herald reporter that if he does not succeed he will return to England on the 4th, adding, "But as I have a message from the English to the American people, I am sure that if the latter come to hear me once they will come again."

We cherish a hope that the Administration will pr[illegible] the Pittsburg [illegible] office thief to conviction, and punish him to the full extent of the law. These little indiscretions are of too frequent [illegible] It is [illegible] that the $30,000 will be recovered on his official bond, but we cannot afford just now to compromise with villainy in the civil service. A salutary example can be made of this defaulter, and the rigorous application of justice, as in the case of Hodges, will do much toward inspiring others, similarly disposed, with a wholesome fear of the law. It would also be gratifying to hear of the apprehension and conviction of Col. John T. Harper, the defaulting Illinois Collector of Internal Revenue, whose defalcation (according to the report of the Special Agent engaged in examining his accounts,) foots up $106,748 19. We are hopeful that President Grant will do his utmost towards bringing these criminals to justice.

The fitful temper of Mr. Shah, of Persia, has recently found expression in the release from imprisonment of his Grand Vizier, who was incarcerated in Teheran at the gentle savage's command. Not only, was the Grand Vizier set free, but he was immediately appointed Governor of the town of Reshd, capital of the Province of Ghilan. After that, decapitation.

The New York Tribune of September 19th contains a list of murder cases to be tried in the court of Oyer and Terminer in that city before October 1st. The cases number fifteen, and the Tribune remarks that these are "only those considered of minor importance." The Stokes, Simmons, Scannel and King murder cases are to be tried in the October term.

The Mark Lane Express estimates that England must import 2,000,000 quarters of wheat this year.

FROM EASTERN OREGON.

ELDORADO, Sept. 19, 1873.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In looking over the proceedings of the State Convention I read with sorrow and surprise the resolution endorsing Senator Mitchell. I have been a Republican and voted the Republican ticket ever since I had a vote, and have used my influence to secure the triumph of its principles: but this is more than I can swallow. Do the wire-pullers who controlled that Convention think they can lead the Republican masses of Oregon through that slough of immorality? Do they imagine that after having Mitchell forced upon them by the power of money and railroad influence as United States Senator, even when his sins were not made public, that the people are going to be forced to endorse his life and actions after it becomes patent that this same life is made up of facts that no honest man can countenance? I love the Republican party, and believe its principles can never die; but any man that will consent to come before the people on a platform containing that resolution deserves defeat, and I think that the condemnation at the polls in October next will be so emphatic that the apologists for crime and the trucklers to party will receive a lesson they will remember.

WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR

HILLSBORO, Sept 28 1873.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

To-day (Monday) opens the Washington County Fair. Stock is coming in lively. Mr. S. G. Reed's shorthorns and Aldernevs are arriving, as well as his Clydesdale mares and colts; also a fine lot of sheep belonging to the same gentleman.

The race (single dash) to-day is the all-absorbing theme. W. G. Scoggin enters Norwich, J. B. Bybee enters Confidence, Nathan Westfall, Gazelle. The horses are all in good fix, and each one is sanguine that he will win. Undoubtedly it will be the hottest contested race ever run on the grounds.

The forerunners of Wilson's Circus and Reed's Panorama are covering everything with their posters.

Shops and booths are being opened for the accommodation of the thousands that are here and coming. Undoubtedly this is the best start for a fair that has ever been gotten up in Oregon.

The Temperance party in Wisconsin is elated by a recent decision by the Supreme Court of that State. A case was brought up to test the legality of the new law, which is similar to the Ohio law, requiring liquor dealers to give bonds to pay all damages arising from the sale of intoxicating drinks. The Court decided that the State is empowered to prohibit liquor selling, or to permit it, according to its pleasure, and if it permits it, it may qualify the permission in such a manner as the Legislature may deem proper. The law was, therefore, pronounced constitutional.

It is said the Chinese miners in Montana won't work after four o'clock in the afternoon. They say the angels visit this sphere at that hour, and they suspend business to smoke opium and have a talk with the celestial beings. Sabe, Melikan man?

CITY.

DESERTERS CAPTURED—Our readers doubtless recollect the circumstance of three soldiers who were tried and condemned at Vancouver by Court Martial for desertion from the lava beds during the continuance of the Modoc difficulties This occurred several months ago After a fair and impartial trial these soldiers were convicted of desertion and sentenced One of the deserters was sentenced to Fort Alcatraz for seven years and two were to be sent to Cape Disappointment each for two years A few days after receiving their sentence, these prisoners took advantage of the sentinel or guard overpowered him and made their escape. These fellows struck northward, and on reaching the vicinity of Cowlitz river hired out to Mr. Dan Holton who is engaged in getting out and shipping large quantities of the birdseye maple They represented themselves as laborers and appeared steady and industrious Mr Holton, never dreaming of their real character, gave them employment for some time, as all three proved splendid laborers Over two weeks ago one of the deserters, who gave his name as Sullivan alias Hart, quit work and came up to Portland He was identified at once arrested by the police, and conveyed to Vancouver, where he was delivered into the hands of the military On Saturday last the other two deserters came up to this city One of them was known as Elliott alias Mitchell, and the other as Melody alias Drew They were ignorant of the arrest of their partner in crime and came boldly into Portland. Soon after arriving here, officer Mercer obtained wind of the matter, and so commenced to trace up the deserters At length they were arrested on board the E N Cooke just a few minutes before she left the wharf bound for the Ajax down the river Both were brought back and placed in jail This morning these men will be sent over to Vancouver, in custody of the officer making the arrest Unless extremely fortunate, this time these offenders will hardly escape the unpleasant consequences of their grave infractions of the established and recognized military laws of the country.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY—We are informed by Dr. Marsh, President of the Pacific University, that this favored institution of learning, began its first term of the school year on the first Wednesday of September About 80 pupils were in attendance at the opening of the school—in the several departments of the University. Considering the fact that a large proportion of the pupils are from abroad, and that a district school, under excellent management, is in operation at the same time, the [illegible] attendance is indicative of an unusual [illegible] of prosperity, in fact it is larger than has been known for some years at that period of the school year.

DEDICATED—All arrangements have been perfected by the members of Nonpareil Lodge, and their new hall at the corner of Madison and First street will be formally dedicated on next Wednesday evening. Mr Tilmon Ford, Grand Worthy Chief Templar of Oregon, will preside and conduct the ceremonies on the occasion To-day and to-morrow work of furnishing the hall will be pushed forward At the conclusion of the dedicatory ceremonies a sociable will be held in the hall in which invited guests are requested to participate. The exercises will consist of music, refreshments, etc

WINDWARD ARRIVED—The bark Windward arrived at this port yesterday afternoon in tow of the tug Astoria The bark came from San Francisco bringing a large assorted cargo The Windward it will be remembered was at this port over a year ago. She was dismasted during a heavy gale off the mouth of the Columbia, and towed to Portland where she remained several months At length she was purchased by parties in San Francisco, overhauled and rerigged, and took away a cargo of lumber. Since departing from this port the Windward, we believe has made a trip to Australia and Liverpool

BURNING IN THE WOODS—The timber across the river north of the city was on fire during Saturday night The crackling of the fire as it devoured the green trunks and branches could be distinctly heard, and the red flames illuminated the horizon in that direction through the night We did not hear of any particular damage resulting although the fire was in the vicinity of houses, fences and other improvements

RETORTS—The bark R[illegible] T[illegible] which arrived on Friday evening brought in addition to a large assorted cargo [illegible] clay retorts for the Gas Company These retorts are made of the finest quality of fire clay and require to be as carefully handled as [illegible] many baskets of eggs They will be put in position by the Company when the works [illegible] enlarged

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

One of the most gratifying indications of prosperity is the opening of new and handsome stores, two of which we are pleased to note this morning. To-day, Walter Bros will throw their new storerooms, in Parrish's new building, First street, open to the public We called yesterday, and found the salesroom stocked to the ceiling with a fine new assortment of wall papers, oil cloths, reps, damasks, mattings and upholstery goods This room is twenty-five feet wide by ninety-five in depth. The entrances are large and afford plenty of light Ventilators in the floor give a free circulation of air throughout Chandeliers are arranged to throw a flood of light over the whole room, and everything presents a most attractive appearance Ascending to the second floor, we find a large room extending the entire width of the building—forty feet with a depth of seventy feet In this room are the carpets, oil cloths, lace curtains, etc The rows of shelving are filled with the finest of the above goods Eleven large windows give excellent light through the day while at night the five chandeliers afford an abundance of artificial light Back of this room is the work room, 25x50 feet which is also well lighted We can assure those visiting the new establishment that it is the finest of the kind north of San Francisco Read the announcement to-day

Simultaneously with Walter Bros, those well known dealers in clothing furnishing goods, etc, Messrs Joseph Kohn & Co, have removed to the new building recently erected by J L Parrish, Esq, opposite the National Bank The new storeroom will compare well with any on the coast It is 25 by 95 feet, and every convenience known to the business has been consulted Arranged on each side are rows of shelving, on which are placed the late importations of furnishing goods, hats, valises, etc On the three long counters are piled an immense stock of clothing which, for variety and excellence of quality, are not to be excelled The firm has recently added many new styles and paid every attention to the quality of the goods so that purchasers may always rest assured they are buying the best, and at the same time the cheapest Customers will be made perfectly at home in the new store, as the most polite attention is paid to all The firm is so well known that further comment is unnecessary In conclusion allow us to urge upon the public to call on the old firm in their new quarters

We learn that a jewelry firm of this city are engaged in making a handsome silver plate medal which is to be presented to the winning club at the State tournament

In addition to the general prizes offered at the coming State tournament we learn the clubs entering to compete for the championship have decided to award three special prizes One prize will be given to the best average player who may be so adjudged by competent and impartial judges Another prize will be awarded the best thrower in a match that is to be given The third and last prize will be given to the person who can make the best time around the bases It is not yet known of what these prizes are to consist but they will doubtless be handsome testimonials in the shape of badges medals etc

The game of base ball last Saturday afternoon was well attended The Pioneers were short Whiting Lownsdale and Raleigh whose places were filled by Leahy Will Warren and Witherell The Picked Nine obtained the lead from the second inning and kept it till the seventh when a succession of white washes followed Strong was placed in the field for the Picked Nine as substitute for Mercer and as usual acquitted himself nobly The game was a long and tedious one and came near being defeat number three for the Pioneers As it is they are credited with one more victory, making a total of nine victories out of eleven games played Below is the result by innings

VANCOUVER ITEMS.

A gentleman residing at Vancouver has laid us under obligations for the following items of interest

The walls of the third story of the convent are nearly completed except on the north wing

Work on the Government wharf is going on rapidly, and when completed will be a substantial structure

Typhoid fever is prevalent along the Columbia There have been a few deaths from this disease, although none on the higher grounds back from the river

Young Brant, recently graduated from West Point is visiting his friends in Vancouver He is ordered to report at Fort Colville, and will soon leave for that place

Heavy fogs are prevalent in the mornings but no frosts yet About a week ago there was a heavy frost back in the country, although it did but little damage

Large quantities of grain are coming into town for shipment The surplus grain this season will be four or five times as great as any preceding year Better times are predicted Business is already improving Scarcely a tenement house in town is vacant There is no rush to Tacoma from this place

The Board of Managers of the Agricultural Society have decided to omit the Annual Fair this season, This was owing to the opposition of the President and one or two members of the Board The people wished the Fair, and it would have been a success if officers had done their part An election of officers will be held at the usual time, when it is hoped men will be elected who have some regard for the welfare of Clarke county

TENINO AND BEYOND.

A gentleman just from the Northern Pacific Railroad gives us the following items

The iron which came on the Idaho is piled up on the wharf at Kalama

Grading had reached within two miles of the "terminus" when the orders to suspend operations were received

Work along the whole line has been suspended by orders from the East except on the wharf at Tacoma where a considerable force of men are still employed

Twenty-three miles of road has been finished and put in condition for use beyond Tenino Seventeen miles, however, of grading has been completed beyond the last rail

No freight trains are running over the road—the passenger cars convey both passengers and freight. Trade and travel, at present, does not justify but the running of one train

The steamer Idaho brought iron sufficient to lay the track for five miles. Even if operations are resumed, no more track will be laid until enough iron is brought up to complete the road through to Tacoma

A Pennsylvania exchange is responsible for the following Joaquin Miller has taken to riding in Hyde Park London with his Mexican equestrian trappings and sports a white sombrero with cords and tassels, in the gayest cavalier fashion A prominent circus manager has made him a tempting offer to ride in his show in his vaquero costume and if his last book proved unremunerative Prentice Mulford thinks he will accept

NEW OPENING—Messrs Hurgren & Shindler have opened at the corner of Front and Alder streets A full stock of furniture etc, on hand—more being added daily

There is no disease flesh is heir to more troublesome to manage than rheumatism It comes when you least expect it and generally remains till it gets ready to go away The most conspicuous remedy for this complaint is Johnson's Anodyne Liniment

Two or three doses of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders will cure a horse of any common cough or cold and the very worst cases may be cured in a few weeks We know this from experience.

LINN COUNTY FAIR.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

Fifth Day.

ALBANY Sept 27 1873

The plowing match referred to in yesterday's report brought out a number of competitors in a fine showing of plows and cultivator

Frank Wood of this city had a number of plows including his sulky and gang combined the Jones and Moline plows and several other kinds His sulky and gang took first premiums and seemed general favorites among the farmers who witnessed the match

Ellison of Salem was present with the Buckeye gang, which did excellent work

A B Culver of Albany showed a gang and cultivator a complete looking farming implement which attracted considerable notice

The Capital Lumbering Company of Salem brought out an excellent assortment of plows and cultivators of various patterns and all of their own manufacture

Wm P Andrews of Linn county took first premium on his clod crusher an excellent farming implement and one which experienced farmers say is certain to come into general use

There were a few other plows and cultivators on hand but the owners were not polite enough to give your correspondent any special information regarding them

THE FIRST RACE

Of the day came off at 1 30 P M It was a running race two in three mile heats for Oregon raised horses purse $300—first horse $150 second horse $100 third horse $50 Three to enter and two to go The horses entered were Butralf by Basket Vallandigham by Lindsey and Bill Gird by Hughes The first and second heats were won by Vallandigham time 2:04—1 :21

THE SECOND RACE

Came off promptly at 2 30 P M It was a pacing race two in three Frank Parton entered Scotchin Montgomery entered Shoo Fly and Acker entered General The first heat was won by Scotchin with Shoo Fly second time 2 40½ The second and third heats were won by Shoo Fly time 2 40½—2 41½ This ended the racing of the season except scrub racing, not worth mention

REAPERS, MOWERS AND OTHER IMPLEMENTS

There was a poor showing in this department

J W Henderson of Polk county exhibited a machine for vitroling wheat, which was generally regarded as an article of utility

Mr Woodcock, of Monroe Benton county had a Hunter's separator It was favorably noticed by the farmers There were a few other articles in this line on the ground but it was impossible to learn the names of the exhibitors The truth is that the showing in this class was meager in the extreme.

OTHER MATTERS

In to-morrow's report will be given a summing up of the fair Many things have passed unnoticed which shall receive attention in the concluding letter.

ALBANY Sept 27—9 A M

The Linn County Fair is now a thing of the past The races this afternoon were a pacing match of two in three and a match for carriage horses There were three entries in the pacing race and two in the match for carriage horses Welch took the premium in the carriage match and Parton won the pacing race

CONCLUSION

Hitherto I have said nothing to detract from the Fair anything of merit that it may have possessed In fact I have studiously avoided condemning, many things which deserved censure, not wishing to judge too hastily Now that the Fair is over a few words of advice to the managers may not be amiss Not enough care was taken to fit the grounds for the reception of visitors No water wagon was run to lay the dust either on the track or in the vicinity of the pavilion and stands A perfect cloud of minute particles of Oregon soil filled the air during yesterday and to-day filling the eyes of everyone who did not wear goggles and rendering everything exposed decidedly gritty There were at least a dozen stands on the ground where whisky was sold publicly and drunken rowdies could be seen at all hours reeling about these stands and heard blurting out their disgusting blackguardism

Notwithstanding, the receipts of the first three days exceeded those of last year it is now said that the Society will come out at least $1,000 in debt on the Fair It has been impossible to get the names of exhibitors in all of the classes and as the award of premiums will soon be published it is unnecessary to refer further to this feature of the Fair An extended review could be written of the week's sum[illegible] but it is something might in truth be said which would be unpleasant to certain ears I will here let the curtain fall upon the Linn County Fair of 1873

COLEMAN'S EUCALYPTUS

Dr J. S. Coleman's Compound Extract of Eucalyptus is a preparation combining all the valuable medical qualities of the Eucalyptus which is cultivated in nearly every California garden for its [illegible] utility, having become the household remedy for all diseases of the KIDNEYS, BLADDER and URINARY CANAL, and SEMINAL WEAKNESS It seems to have a direct affinity for the GENITO-URINARY ORGANS and their surroundings and cures them by its alterative healing and balsamic properties [illegible] than any other known remedy

It is an invaluable remedy for all diseases of the mucous and serous membranes, such as BRONCHITIS, HACKING COUGH NAUSEA DURING PREGNANCY DYSPEPSIA LEUCORRHŒA, etc

This preparation is the result of Dr Coleman's experiments with the medicinal qualities of the tree in the U S Marine Hospital in San Francisco in 1871 and 1872, where he had unusual facilities for testing the various methods of preparing the remedy and its uses It can be relied upon as certain to give the promised results, and hundreds of testimonials of its efficacy can be seen at his office, 405 Kearney st, San Francisco

COLEMAN'S DOUBLE EXTRACT OF EUCALYPTUS is a powerful yet harmless febrifuge and is a special preparation for the treatment of the malarious fevers of our interior valleys and is warranted to cure any case of FEVER AND AGUE treated with it according to directions while the baneful results of the usual Quinine and arsenical remedies of those diseases are entirely avoided

MONDAY MORNING SEPT 29 1873

STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

This body has been closely engaged during the week past in business of some considerable importance. The County Board of Equalization for Columbia county referred a case involving the question of excessive taxation which was determined as shown in the subjoined communication

OFFICE OF THE STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
SALEM Oregon September 21 1873

County Board of Equalization Columbia county

GENTLEMEN: Your communication with notes accompanying papers referred to this Board for action have been received and duly considered

In reply to your request that this Board pass upon questions presented by the petition of William G. Poppleton we have to say that there are some doubts as to the jurisdiction of the State Board of Equalization in cases of this character. The petitioner has appealed to you under the laws of our State which clearly places his case for your decision while the statute creating the State Board appears to assign other duties to it. Yet in section six of said statute it is provided that the State Board may hear representations from the County Boards of the several counties, but these representations are supposed to be in relation to the valuations of property and other matters properly connected with the equalization of assessments. This view of the matter might justify us in returning the papers to you without comment but since this case has been submitted by you in good faith and as you have expressed no opinion and in no way decided the case, we may properly give an opinion upon the facts presented

First—As a proposition of law all property of every individual is subject to taxation unless expressly exempt by statute. Invisible personal property, such as money notes &c. attached to the person of the owner, and is taxable to him whether in his actual possession or on deposit within or without the State [Section 3 "Revenue Laws" of Oregon Reports, in re. C. W. Johnson, ex. of the estate of [illegible] City]

Real property is defined by law (see Section 2, [illegible] Laws). The improvements, rights and privileges on lands are taxable.

The ground of exemption claimed by the petitioner is that no patent has, as yet, he says, issued to him or any other person. The words imply that the title is yet in the United States Government. It is to be presumed that the petitioner is fully informed as to all the facts respecting the title, and as he has made the [illegible], he should given the facts, and his [illegible] to do so must be construed against him. It [illegible] from the statement of your A[illegible] or that the petitioner in May last did not deny that he was the owner of the land, and afterward included the same in his list of [illegible] property.

If the petitioner is but a [illegible] on the public lands, with no intention of obtaining a title the land should not be [illegible] to him, but if he is [illegible] the same by virtue of an act of Congress, and has done all the law requires of him to acquire title, he will be considered the owner, and the want of a [illegible] will not release him from taxation

It [illegible] further from your [illegible] roll that this land [illegible] to petitioner, is made up of lots and parts of sections owned by himself, and which [illegible] to show that the petitioner is a claimant of the [illegible] and that his effort now to be relieved of the [illegible] with him. At any rate, if he does not own the land, he has no right to complain that the same be taxed

The petitioner, as a further claim for relief states in his petition that the [illegible] of all moneys, [illegible] dues and [illegible] of every kind whatever, assessed to him for the year 1873 [illegible], became the [illegible] were sold and conveyed by him to Edgar [illegible] of Lafayette, Yamhill county, Oregon, for a [illegible] and valuable consideration, on or about the 1st day of January, 1873, the amount [illegible] Whether the [illegible] debts dues and [illegible] sold, [illegible] to that sum, or whether the consideration is of that value, is not [illegible] clear. But we will suppose it to be the latter. In support of this statement, the affidavit of Edgar Poppleton is attached to the petition. He [illegible] that the [illegible] in the petition are in all things true, as he believes. The certificate of the County Clerk of Yamhill are also found in this case, at whose instance we are not informed. A [illegible] copy of the Records would have been the best [illegible]. These certificates of the County [illegible] in a court of law. But [illegible] here, we will [illegible] them as proof for [illegible]

[illegible] No. 1 [illegible] that it appears from the assessment roll of Yamhill county, that "Dr. Edgar [illegible] for $6,000 securities, assigned to him by Wm. G. Poppleton, which securities said [illegible] now owns and holds. [illegible] of the copy of the Yamhill [illegible] Roll for the year 1873, certified to [illegible] Clerk as being a true copy of the [illegible] to the said [illegible] Poppleton [illegible] of all [illegible], debts, mortgages, [illegible] the sum of [illegible] for merchandise [illegible], $60; two cows, $60 [illegible]

[illegible] But the Roll is entirely silent as to [illegible] now held and owned by him—[illegible] The C[illegible] had [illegible] certified from [illegible] the Roll.

[illegible] No. 2 [illegible] that the Records of said [illegible] sold to Wm. G. [illegible] on June 1st, 1873, twenty acres of land [illegible] the [illegible] of Lafayette, Yamhill county, [illegible] of the town plat, for the [illegible] paid cash [illegible] in certain notes and [illegible] said Wm. G. Poppleton then held [illegible] to said [illegible] Poppleton, in [illegible] and that the said Wm. [illegible] is taxed for said property." We [illegible] as to what records are referred [illegible] that the Clerk [illegible] the [illegible] are out of the ordinary [illegible] for [illegible] not from the record itself. At any [illegible] the petition as to [illegible]

[illegible] the Yamhill county Assessor [illegible] Wm. G. Poppleton [illegible] for [illegible] that it is the same land referred to by the Clerk. This land is appraised by [illegible] only [illegible] wide [illegible] from [illegible] put upon the same by the parties interested.

[illegible] shows that in May [illegible] to his property [illegible] and accounts were [illegible] they were [illegible] ble, [illegible] in the hands of his agent [illegible] to receive the money [illegible], but that they were out of your [illegible] had no right to [illegible] then his property, [illegible] is a bar to his now disputing that [illegible] Laws of [illegible], page 336)

[illegible] we have to say that collection is disturbed by the facts [illegible] which, we regret to say, is too common throughout our State, so that [illegible] of the invisible [illegible] by the A[illegible], and while upon [illegible] we feel called upon to commend the [illegible] conduct of your Assessor. In this instance, [illegible] that he, for one, has acted conscientiously [illegible] under his oath of office

[illegible] the facts declared that the assessment [illegible] Wm. G. Poppleton is properly made and the [illegible] are directed to be returned to you herewith

[illegible] has [illegible] also employed in the [illegible] ination of the assessment rolls, which [illegible] been received, with the exception of [illegible] Grant, Wasco, Multnomah, Benton and Coos counties. The W. U. Telegraph Company complains of excessive taxation in being [illegible] $100 a mile instead, as [illegible] would wish, $40 or $50 per mile.

[illegible] of the tabulation of the statistics [illegible] has [illegible] the attention of the [illegible] and is being [illegible] forward to speedy [illegible] tion

[illegible] of the equalization of the [illegible] of railroads and other corporations [illegible] much of the time of the Board [illegible] following action was had in reference to [illegible] of equalization:

[illegible] It is [illegible] for this Board, in the [illegible] and [illegible] discharge of its duties, to [illegible] into consideration the four different [illegible] of property in this State, to-wit lands, town and city lots, railroad and personal property, and to add to or deduct from the assessed [illegible] of each of said [illegible] within each [illegible] such rate per centum as shall be equitable and just, and which shall produce a uniform valuation of the property of each class throughout the State, having due regard to the actual cash value of each species of property as the law requires.

That agricultural lands shall be classified in five [illegible], as follows

First—Improved agricultural land the value of which is increased by reason of being adjacent to towns and facilities of transportation

Second—Improved agricultural land of first quality, the value of which has not been increased by any local causes

Third—Improved agricultural land of an inferior grade to second class, which has not been increased in value by local causes

Fourth—Unimproved lands of first quality

Fifth—Unimproved lands of second quality

Railroad property being limited in extent in this State, and confined to but few individuals, it is considered that this Board will have performed its duty by affixing a general average to the assessments of such property returned by the several counties

Mosby is said to have written to Washington explaining his position in the present canvass in Virginia and asking that if because of the patronage bestowed upon him in the distribution of certain offices a different course was expected of him said appointments be revoked. Mosby is cool for the season

Prof Agassiz received on his last birthday a gift of $100,000 from his son-in-law Mr Quincy Shaw at a little dinner party the latter had arranged for him and at the same time his son gave him a check for $20,000. The Professor promises to devote the whole to science, and is already looking anxiously about for the next generous giver

Brevity was excellently exemplified by the Prince of Wales on the occasion of the presentation of an address to him by the corporation of Plymouth. The address was taken as read, and acknowledged by the Prince of Wales thus: "Gentlemen, I thank you very much for your kindness." Is not this another proof that the English are getting Americanized?

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, September 27 1873.

Gold in New York to-day 112¾

Portland Legal Tender rates 87½ buying, 88½ selling

Gold bars are quotable at [illegible] fine

Exchange on San Francisco ½@1 per cent discount

No Liverpool [illegible] at quotations by telegraph to-day

The [illegible] from the East concerning financial affairs is attracting great attention in business circles here. It is reported that our city banks refuse to buy drafts on New York banks at present holding that caution is the parent of safety and being determined to exercise that attribute until affairs at least become more settled and the smoke of the monetary disaster at the East shall have cleared away and it can be seen clearly what are the results

The Late Attempt to Bull Gold.

The [illegible] authority in financial matters among the journals of the United States thus accounts for the failure of the recent attempt by the "bulls" of Wall street to toss the price of gold: "For some time past the same powerful and dangerous clique of speculators who engineered the famous gold scheme in New York on Black Friday has been at work at a similar attempt to corner the gold market. That these men could have done this without the aid of bank credits of a very extensive character is next to impossible and some of the leading journals in New York have pointed out the methods in which the banks were used, as we have heretofore mentioned. Under the influence of this combination the available cash gold in the market was monopolized by the speculators and then loaned on call at sharp rates until the gold premium was gradually forced up without the least reason or justification. But the speculators seemed again to have failed. The course of the leading journals in this crisis with one or two exceptions has been bold, manly and honorable and has resulted in organizing such a force against the clique that at the close of last week there was a complete collapse of the corner, and the gold premium went crashing down to about its proper figures. The leading bull operator in this case, as on Black Friday, was Jay Gould who is said to have failed which is nothing new, as he repudiated his Black Friday contracts. It seems however that the Secretary of the Treasury was in New York backing up the effort to destroy this corner, with over eighty millions of Treasury gold in hand to do it with. It was not necessary to sell any of this. All that was required was to have the authority there on the spot to do the work in an emergency. It was the same on Black Friday. The very first order to sell four millions cash gold from the Treasury broke the corner."

Wheat Market.

Considerable feeling is manifest in our market at this time, as indications do not now seem to point to any advance at a very early day. Liverpool dispatches would indicate quietness there, while private telegrams from San Francisco denote no great amount of activity in that market. Exporters here inform us that prices on Monday in our market will open at $1 80@1 85 ₩ cental. Although some decline from the figures paid a week ago is noticed in our exchanges of this date up the valley, still the offers in the interior seem to be higher in proportion than here

Miscellaneous.

The Imperial Mills of Oregon City are running about eighteen hours per day, averaging 250 to 300 barrels per day. They are also buying largely. Their storing capacity is 20 000 bushels

The British ship Privateer received the balance of her cargo at Astoria Thursday night. She has on board about 41 600 bushels, in all 1 250 tons valued at $60,000. Her destination is to Cork for orders, and she will sail early this week

The Chicago Journal of Commerce of the 17th of September says: "The rapidity with which the crops are being marketed and consequent demands from the interior, have caused a falling off of fully $9,500 000 in local bank deposits. Exchange on New York was offered at $1 25 per $1,000. The week's banking transactions are said to have exceeded those of any preceding week in the financial history of Chicago. The aggregate bank clearings are stated at over $7,000,000 greater than for the corresponding week of last year."

James Martin, Esq., of Long Tom informs us that Bundy & Co's warehouse now has 40,000 bushels of wheat in store. On Friday of last week, sixty teams unloaded at that place. Parties owning the wheat have been offered $1 per bushel, exclusive of storage and sacks

The cultivation of broom corn has been checked in the West by the cheapness of the article so that the [illegible] scarcely obtained prices sufficient to pay the expense of raising it. The late storms have also caused serious injury to the comparatively limited crop raised this year, resulting in an advance of nearly 100 per cent. on the old stock on hand.

Judge Richardson will, it is stated, recommend in his next report to Congress that the laws which either directly or by implication authorize the reissue of the $44 000,000 of legal tender reserves to be repealed. Judge Richardson is still understood to hold with the minority of the Senate Committee on Finance, that while the minimum reduction of the currency was fixed at $356,000,000 the law fixing the maximum circulation at $400 000 000 was unrepealed

The Salem Flouring Mills has taken in since harvest 170,000 bushels of new wheat. We learn that at Corvalis the deliveries of wheat for the last four weeks amounted to an average of 4 000 bushels per day. Large quantities are in store there, the freight trains being unable to carry it away as fast as delivered.

The exports of British railway iron to Peru in the first six months of this year were only 1,407 tons as compared with 21,491 tons in the corresponding six months of 1872

The amount of exports from the Puget Sound Collection District to foreign countries for the month of August was 7,280 000 feet of boards and planks, 280 000 laths, 620 000 shingles, $7 050 worth of spars, and $8 688 worth of miscellaneous articles. Total value of exports foreign $91,459. Exported overland via Colville, $11 658. Mostly stock driven into British Columbia.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Hereditary Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system? Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, &c., attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are laboring under any of these fearful maladies, [illegible] forget the sacred responsibility [illegible] nor delay to obtain [illegible] relief.

DR. GIBBON is responsible, and will give to patient a written instrument, binding [illegible] effect a radical and permanent cure, or [illegible] charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, [illegible] symptoms, length of time the disease has [illegible] and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the [illegible] with full and plain directions. By [illegible] Dollars coin in registered letter through [illegible] office or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus diplomas, deceive the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and [illegible] newspapers of San Francisco and other [illegible] are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, [illegible], carriers, intelligence office keepers etc. The way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry; it will cost you nothing, and may save you many [illegible] for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended 'patients' [illegible] Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he [illegible] to cure

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Postoffice Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON ALL LETTERS. Consultations FREE.
